RESEARCH STUDY ABOUT THE DEVELOPMENT OF CREATIVITY IN EUROPE WITH THE COLLABORATION OF CULTURAL AND ART CENTRES OF THE CreArt CITIES

The CreArt project keeps on working on the research study about the development of creativity, creators and institutions in the medium size cities in Europe. The conduct of this study will continue until 2017 with the joint collaboration of different cultural and art centres of the CreArt partner cities, apart from the contributions of other cities with similar features. The final aim of this research study is to contribute to the development of the European cultural reality, with this contribution by CreArt.

THE ATELIERHAUS SALZAMT IN LINZ (AUSTRIA) HELDS THE ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAM WITH EIGHT EUROPEAN ARTISTS

The Atelierhaus Salzamt –managed by the City Hall in Linz– has selected 8 artists, among the more than 140 submitted proposals, to participate in its "Artist-in-Residence" program from August to September this year 2013. The selected artists from the different CreArt cities are: Giorgia Marras from Genoa (Italy); Martin Dašek from Pardubice (Czech Republic); Annalisa Macagnino from Lecce (Italy); Jolanta Kyzikaite from Vilnius (Lithuania); Dinu Bogdan from Arad (Romania); Ruta Butkute from Kaunas (Lithuania); Julio Falagan and Patricia Sandonis from Valladolid (Spain). All of them will have the opportunity to develop their artistic projects during this two months in this residence situated on the banks of the Danube.
