THE SEMINAR "THE ART AND THE RESEARCH STUDIES ON CULTURAL POLICIES" WHERE IMPORTANT SPEAKERS AND EUROPEAN CONSULTANTS PARTICIPATE WILL BE CELEBRATED ON 27th SEPTEMBER IN THE ROMANIAN CITY OF ARAD.

The Romanian city of Arad will hold on 27th September a new seminar for cultural managers, technicians and creators about The Art and the Research Studies on cultural policies, where case studies about European cities will be discussed. In this seminar the following speakers will participate: Thomas Perrin, Associate Researcher at PACTE-CNRS and University of Grenoble, Rebecca Amsellem, PhD Student in Economy of Culture at the University of La Sorbona and María Iglesias and Elisa Grafulla Project Managers in the cultural agency KEA Affairs of Brussels. At the same time, there will be a work meeting in relation with the Study on the contribution of the artistic creation to the local development (cultural, social and economic) in European medium-sized cities, in which the cities from the CreArt Network are working.

THE ARTIST IN RESIDENCE PROGRAMMES CONTINUE IN DELFT/NETHERLANDS AND LINZ/AUSTRIA WITH THE PARTICIPATION OF 10 NEW EUROPEAN CreArt ARTISTS.

The AiR CreArt project in Delft coordinated by Art Initiative id11 started last 5th August in the Kadmiun Centre. This specific project refers to the Vermeer's painting View of Delft and encourage the artists to produce contemporary variants and site-specific works related to the location. Art initiative id11 have been organizing for some years artist-in-residence projects in temporarily available spaces such as vacant shops, office spaces or apartment buildings to be demolished or renovated. At the end of September there will be a final public presentation of the works produced by the 8 guest artists: Amaya Bombin (Valladolid-Spain), Alexander Glandien (Linz-Austria), Tvrtko Buric (Genoa-Italy), Bernadisiute Dovile (Vilnius-Lithuania), Lieke Snellen (Delft-The Netherlands), Leonard Sherifi (Genoa-Italy), Ruta Butkute (Kaunas-Lithuania), Nino Strohecker (Linz-Austria). On the other side, Patricia Sandonis and Julio Falagán (Valladolid-Spain), selected by the Centre Atelierhaus Salzamt in the past call, arrived recently to Austria to spend two months in this space dedicated to artistic residences run by the City of Linz and centrally located in the Danube.
